"REMARKS

THE LITERARY SENSATION OF THE AGE- TVER 500 PAGES, 150 ILLUSTRATIONS

Handsomery Bound in Stiff Paper Covers. LAUGH AND GROW PAT.

A collection of the best writings of this great author, most profusely illustrated, with over 50 pages, it is the fundest book ever pub-vashed. Bill Nye needs no introduction. The mention of the book is enough: BILL NYE'S REMAKKS:

"I have passed through an earthquake and an Indian outbreak, but I would rather ride an earthquake without saddle or bridle, than to bestride a successful broncho eruption." "Age brings caution and a lot of shop-worm experience, purchased at the highest market price. Time brings value regrets and windom teeth that can be left in a ginss of water overlight." "Too much of our hotel food tastes like the second day of January, or the fifth day of July, Frail's the whole thing in a few words, and un-less the good hotels are nearer together, we shall have to multiply our cemetery facilities."

PRESS NOTICES:

PRESS NOTICES:

"When Bill Nys turns himself loose for funtie laughing beits of residers should be tightened to prevent accidents."—Inter-Desar, Chicago.

"Bill Nys always interests and his genial, big-hearted sunny nature shines through every line in his book."—Pittsburg Press.

"We believe that Bill Nys is the brightest humorist of the day. No change in the English language can ever do away with his tur. He is a public benefactor; one of the greatest men ef his ags. We shudder to think what will besome of us when he is gone. May fate stay the Eag.—Philodelphic Free.
